

“Surely this will prove a great boon under our present circumstances”

Speech by Governor Fitzgerald to the Legislative Council announcing the introduction of convicts Inquirer, 26 December 1849

Recognising the 9,700 convicts who helped change the face of Western Australia

ABOVE: Connors Mill, Toodyay

L-R: Lynton Hiring Depot,
Yallabatharra; Maleys Bridge,
Greenough; and Fremantle
Prison, Fremantle

To commemorate the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the Hougoumont, the last convict transportation ship to Australia, the Heritage Council is inviting you to nominate places for a special convict-themed assessment program for 2018-19 that will focus on identifying places associated with convicts for inclusion in the State Register of Heritage Places.